Directions for determining beam size for a maximum bending load:
Place straight edge on known allowable stress ($F_b$) and span ($L$) values.
Mark point on pivot line. Pivot straight edge about point pivot line so that it intersects known value on, $S$, line or known load value on, $W$, line. Intersection with $S$ or $W$, line gives desired value.