General

Greenhouses and plant growing facilities include three main categories of components:

1. Structures
2. Coverings
3. Environment

Certain data and information concerning these three categories are summarized in this section. Several Extension publications and blueprints are available giving more comprehensive information on these topics.