Since farm machinery requires the second largest investment on most farms, machinery management should receive considerable attention from the farmer. This section presents a simplified method of estimating (M1) effective machinery capacity, (M2) machinery operation costs and custom rates, (M3) estimated fuel requirements for selected farming operations, and (M4) sprayer calibration by the hundred-foot method, and (M5) tractors.